

APPLICATIONS OPEN for Continuing Series Masterclass

A joint venture between TAPS and Talkback Thames, this course is an advanced programme for writers working in 30-minute drama trying to make the leap into the 60-minute format. Split across two workshop sessions, you will work with top writers and creative staff from The Bill to follow an episode from initial storyline to transmission. Between modules, you will put this knowledge into action as you develop your own episode treatment to be assessed by the actual series script editors.

NB: Applicants must have at least a 30-minute transmitted drama credit.

Course running 17-18 Jan/21-22 Feb 08

Application deadline 1 November 07

For further information and application forms email gemma@tapsnet.org