

IRIS PRIZE Festival

If you missed the Iris Prize Festival don't worry as IrisTV has plenty of interviews and clips to keep you up to date with almost everything that went on in Cardiff last weekend!

IrisTV has exclusive interviews with:

- Russell T Davies who presented the 2008 Iris Prize
- Dee Rees the 2007 winner visiting Cardiff for the first time
- Till Kleinert, minutes after receiving his award!

You can see IrisTV here: <http://www.irisprize.org/iristv/index.html>

Andrew Gurney who produced the programmes exclusively for IrisTV commented, “I found the whole experience enjoyable - and frustrating at the same time. There was so much going on, and so many people to interview in the three days, that I could only scratch the surface. I hope my pieces on IrisTV give a flavour of what went on. That said, everyone - including the great Russell T Davies - was so approachable that it made the job a pleasure.”

The Iris Prize Festival will be back: 7 - 10 October 2009!

Principal Funders of the Iris Prize Festival are the UK Film Council, Cineworld, Cardiff Council, Film Agency for Wales, Capital Region Tourism, British Council Wales, Chapter, Goleudy, Skillset Screen Academy Wales and Tall Man Films.
